

Banner Advertising Agreement

By purchasing a banner advertisement with PAontheGo.com (referred to as 'we' or 'us') you and/or the company you represent (referred to as 'you' or 'your'), agree to the following terms.

All banner advertisements may not exceed agreed upon sizes, no exceptions. Side banners must be 125px x 125px and page bottom banners must be 468px x 60px. The images provided to PAontheGo.com by you for use in the advertising campaign must use the .jpg or .gif extension.

We require that images do not flash or have moving animations. Also, all images must be family friendly. PAontheGo.com reserves the right to reject any and all images not conforming to this policy. If rejected, a new image may be submitted for review. PAontheGo.com will place your image in the agreed upon page along with a link to the URL requested. Clicking the aforementioned link will open a new browser window displaying the page in which that link produces.

PAontheGo.com does not support any scripts or pop-up/pop-under ads of any kind. Also, any pages linked from our site may not contain any pornography, violent content, promote direct competitors of PAontheGo.com or any site we deem to be inappropriate to our visitors.

PAontheGo.com utilizes Google Ad Manager for all ad serving. The image provided to us must be uploaded to their hosting server in order to be generated onto our site.

Any changes to the advertising campaign, image, requested URL or these terms may only be made after a campaign has ended.

All sales are final, no refunds, transfers, or cancellations will be made once a campaign has started.
